

Essex County Masters Report 2018

This years County Championship at Basildon showed an increase in the number of entries & more entries from outside of the County.

Martin Fenner of Romford was top male Heidi Nevin of Rochford was top female and Rochford were top Club.

Plymouth hosted the British Championship in June and Essex swimmers were in top form winning 23 Gold medals.

October saw Sheffield host the National Championships and again Essex swimmers excelled picking up a host of medals also Alyson Fordham of Romford broke 2 British Records.

November the East Region Inter County was held at Basildon Sporting Village. It was a great performance by the Essex team we won the event by 20 points from last years winners Norfolk.

2019 County Championship:

Basildon Sporting Village on 2nd March.

Doug Drake

Essex Masters